

TORONTO FILM & MEDIA SEMINAR

Archive Fever Fridays

#5 Part 2 – Clara Thomas Archives (York University)

Archive Fever Fridays, an ongoing tour of the GTA's archival wonderland, seeks to expand research horizons and encourage work with local film and media materials by forging ties among students, scholars, artists, and archivists in the Toronto community.

The Clara Thomas Archives and Special Collections (CTASC) at York University Libraries preserves and provides access to eight kilometers of textual records and contains over 15,000 analog audiovisual items. CTASC's holdings reflect York University's long history of fostering expertise in documentary film and media arts. Archival record groups include that of James Beveridge, Donna Davey, Dini Petty, Gail Singer; and the Desh Pardesh, Regent Park Film, Planet in Focus festivals.

Archivist Katrina Cohen-Palacios will present an overview of the CTASC and its major collection areas.

Convener: Jessica Whitehead, Postdoctoral Fellow, University of Toronto

RSVP required by 15 February to jessica.whitehead@utoronto.ca

• 28 February 2020 • 2:15–3:15pm •

Location: Room 305 in Scott Library, York University

TFMS partners include:

Brock University • OCAD University • Queen's University • Ryerson University • Sheridan College •
TIFF Higher Learning • University of Guelph • University of Toronto • Wilfrid Laurier University • York University