

GLOBAL WIL

Professional Development for WIL practitioners

Would you like to undertake professional development in WIL?

Do you have staff looking for professional development?

Opportunity to collaborate with a network of international colleagues

Ideal for all practitioners – whether new to WIL or experienced

Expression of interest and registration:

- Expressions of interest - use our form on our website – at anytime. You will be asked which modules interest you.
- Closing date for registration: 11th February, 2020 (March modules) and 11th September, 2020 (October modules)

Places may be limited. This may restrict participation to one module at a time.

Administration and set-up charge: AU$100 for members of the national associations named below; $175 for other participants. Charge payable on acceptance for a module after registration.

See our website for details

Any queries? Contact use through our online contact form.

Go to www.globalwil.org

20 August 2019.

The copyright for these modules is held by the owners of globalwil.org. This module was developed and is presented by representatives of four national associations: Australian Collaborative Education Network (ACEN); Co-operative Education and Work Integrated Learning Canada (CEWIL); New Zealand Association of Cooperative Education (NZACE); The Vilar Network (Sweden)