

Greetings from Concordia University!

We cordially invite you to participate in Concordia's annual Graduate Symposium in the Department of Education which has been taking place since 1998. The 2021 Graduate Symposium will take place online via ZOOM! The deadline to submit proposals to present is the 17th of January 2021.

The theme of the 2021 Symposium is “Moving Forward: Navigating Education in a Time of Transition”.

The Symposium consists of presentations in a variety of formats covering all areas of education and professional development. Additionally, there will be keynote speakers, panels, and a few planned surprises during the symposium!

This is an interdisciplinary graduate symposium that invites participants from across Canada and around the world. It's free to attend!

We welcome proposals exploring the complexities of educational theory and practice in a broad range of contexts whether academic, social, political, or cultural.
